

PUBLIC INFORMATION MEETING

FOR THE
IMPROVEMENTS TO THE CANAL ROAD ENTRANCE
OF GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Thursday, September 18, 2003
6:30 pm to 8:00 pm
Reiss Building, Room 103, Georgetown University

PURPOSE:

To provide an opportunity, in an open forum, to review and discuss with Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) representatives the project plans for the improvements to the Canal Road Entrance of Georgetown University. The forum will focus on the construction schedule and phasing of activities associated with this project.

It is intended that this information meeting will provide a setting in which representatives from the FHWA can answer questions on the available material and obtain comments from the public.

MEETING FORMAT:

A short presentation will be made at the beginning of the meeting. After the presentation, representatives of the FHWA will be available to informally discuss the project and answer questions. All interested citizens and interest groups are invited to attend the public information meeting. This is an opportunity for individuals, representatives of civic groups, public agencies, and governing bodies to offer comments, and ask questions. Georgetown University is located at 37th and O Streets, NW in Washington, D.C. Please contact Mr. Kevin Rose at (703) 404-6282 for any questions related to this announcement.

DIRECTIONS:

From Georgetown University - Entrance at Main Gates (37th & O Streets, NW):

Turn right after you pass through the main gates at 37th & O Streets, and walk up the diagonal brick walk across the lawn. Continue walking past the Intercultural Center Building up one flight of stairs. The gray brick building on your left is the Reiss Building. Reiss 103 is located on the lower level, which can be accessed via stairs or elevator.
